You will need to submit both Czech and English abstract to the SIS, no matter what language you use in the thesis. If writing in English, translate the contents of `\AbstractEN` into this field. In case you do not speak czech, your supervisor should be able to help you with the translation.